for iPhone 4/4S

Take full advantage of the exciting new functionality introduced by the iPhone 4 - 5x digital zoom, built-in LED flash, display-side camera and HD video - with the GorillaMobile for iPhone4/4S. Secure your phone with the protection of the always-on bumper case which complements the sleek, contemporary form of the device.

Whether you're travelling in a plane or on a picnic, quickly position your phone at any angle to view video, browse the web, easily enjoy FaceTime or flick through your photo collections. The flexible, wrappable legs enhance the creativity of your video, while your photography becomes sharper and clearer with the stability of a tripod. You can even use the screw-thread adapter included so the legs can double as a tripod for your compact digital camera.
