

DSLR Video Fastpack™ AW Series

Mobility redefined

We expanded our award-winning Fastpack series with a purpose-built design for multimedia photographers who need to move quickly and efficiently with their gear. The result is our flexible DSLR Video Fastpack AW series. These flexible packs provide pros and enthusiasts with a comfortable and protective solution that easily converts from DSLR mode to video mode to capture stills, video and sound. Highlights include: audio accessory storage; a tripod/DSLR video rig carrying solution; and a built-in all weather cover.
